Mr. Daniel W. Hardy
Manager, Station WHRC
Haverford College
Haverford, Pa.

Dear Mr. Hardy:

Mr. McKelvey, IBS Business Manager, has forwarded you January 17 letter, announcing the resignation of WHRC, based on the action of the Board of Directors of WHRC at a meeting held in mid-December.

We appreciate your prompt action in notifying us of this decision on the part of the Board of Directors, and of course desire to comply with the wishes of WHRC.

We feel, however, that it is most unfortunate that the Board acted without the knowledge that IBS had again secured the services of a national advertising representative for its Member stations. Notice of this went out to the stations in the enclosed Newsletter, which I believe you have by now seen.

You undoubtedly know that at the Governing Council Meeting last May the Council went on record as not desiring any station owing dues from past years to resign on that account alone. The Council felt that a payment of dues for the current year would be an act of good faith on the part of the station, and then the matter of dues for the past years could be dealt with by individual negotiation. I have no doubt that if you present the case of WHRC and past delinquent dues in writing to the Executive Committee, that when they bring this to the attention of the Governing Council the Council will act favorably in granting relief from this burden. We are all most anxious to build up a large group of satisfied stations in IBS, rather than to demand payment of obligations incurred by station executives who have by now left the campus.

The Executive Committee hopes that you and the Board of Directors of WHRC will reconsider the resignation of WHRC, and in the light of the above information chose to withdraw the letter of January 17, and again enter into the activities of the System. May we hear from you on this matter in the near future?

Yours sincerely,

Mr. J. H. Harty,
Manager, Station WABC,
New York College
Broadcasting, Inc.

Dear Mr. Harty:

Mr. Harty, the Board of Directors, New York College, has received your letter of January 10, 1951, regarding the resignation of WABC, and on the basis of the Board's decision at the meeting of January 10, 1951, the Board has decided to accept your resignation.

We appreciate your prompt action in notifying us of this decision on the part of the Board of Directors, and of course desire to comply with the wishes of WABC.

We feel, however, that it is most unfortunate that the Board acted without the knowledge that this had again occurred the services of a national advertising representative for the member station. Notice of this went out to the stations in the enclosed Newsletter, which I believe you have by now seen.

You undoubtedly know that at the governing Council meeting last May the Council went on record as not desiring any action during the past year to remain on an account basis. The Council felt that a payment of dues for the current year would be an act of good faith on the part of the station, and then the matter of dues for the past year could be dealt with individually. I have no doubt that if you present the case of WABC, and your resignation case is referred to the Executive Committee, that when they bring this to the attention of the governing Council the Council will not request an immediate payment of dues. We are all most anxious to build up a large number of station members in 1951, rather than to demand payment of obligations incurred by station executives who have by now left the service.

The Executive Committee hopes that you and the Board of Directors of WABC will reconsider the resignation of WABC, and in the light of the above information agree to withdraw the letter of January 10, and again enter into the activities of the system. May we hear from you on this matter in the near future?

Sincerely,
David A. Harty
